Setting Description

Look at the picture above and imagine you are here. Write a setting description to describe being in the forest.

Think about what you can see, hear, smell, taste and feel. Try to use expanded noun phrases and similes (like or as) as well as exciting conjunctions to link your sentences together.
